Australian Institute of Credit Management Submission re Review of Credit Provider Determinations: Consultation Paper No. 1 Assignees and Classes of Credit Providers

The Australian Institute of Credit Management (AICM) provides the following response to Consultation Paper No. 1 taking into account as noted on page 2 of the Consultation Paper that there may be new credit reporting provisions which are currently the subject of an inquiry by the Senate Finance and Public Administration Committee.

Questions Raised in Consultation Paper No.1 (p5)

1. Is there any evidence demonstrating a reason not to renew the Assignees Determination?

AICM knows of no reason why the Assignees Determination should not be renewed for a period of 3 years.

2. Is there any evidence demonstrating a reason to amend the Assignees Determination?

AICM is unaware of any reason to amend the Assignees Determination

3. Do you agree with the OAIC's proposal to renew the Assignees Determination for a period of 3 years?

AICM agrees with the OAIC's proposal to renew the Assignees Determination for a period of 3 years.

Questions Raised in Consultation Paper No.1 (p7)

1. Is there any evidence demonstrating a reason not to renew the Classes of Credit Providers Determination?

AICM does not believe that there is any reason not to renew the Classes of Credit Provider Determination.

2. Is there any evidence demonstrating a reason to amend the Classes of Credit Providers Determination?

AICM does not believe that there is any reason to amend the Classes of Credit Providers Determination.

3. Do you agree with the OAIC's proposal to renew the Classes of Credit Providers Determination for a period of 3 years?

AICM agrees that the OAIC's proposal to renew the Classes of Credit Providers Determination for a period of 3 years is appropriate.

Yours sincerely
